

Master of Arts in Theological Studies

The Master of Arts in Theological Studies will challenge you to think critically as you examine theological ideas grounded in the truth of Scripture.

This master's degree program is designed to build a strong comprehension of theological principles that are rooted in a systematic investigation of Scripture and expressed in historical and evangelical theology. Students will engage the arts, culture, and ethics from theological perspectives.

A thorough study and directed discussion across the spectrum of Christian theology will deepen your engagement and understanding of Scripture. You will also learn to attain academic, professional, and practical outcomes both as a student and as a Christian leader.

Students in the Theological Studies graduate program enjoy small classes with other adults who bring the richness of diverse backgrounds to online discussions, adding dimension to the program. Students are also mentored by qualified professors with strong academic credentials and significant experience in their respective fields. This program is accredited by the Higher Learning Commission.
